

CHAMBER NEWS

November 8, 2016

Holiday Open House & Tree-Lighting, Nov 29

The Annual Headland Holiday Open House & Tree-Lighting will be Tuesday, November 29. Kindergarteners from Headland Elementary School will present their Holiday Sing at 6:00pm near the gazebo. The students will decorate the tree afterwards while carolers begin strolling the downtown area to entertain shoppers. Businesses will have specials, treats and door prizes. For more information contact the Chamber office.

Christmas Parade to be held Saturday morning, Dec 10

Headland's Christmas Parade will be on Saturday morning this year as the event alternates each year between Thursday night and Saturday morning. The parade theme this year is "Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree" The parade registration form is attached with this email. Registration is $10 per entry. Prizes will be awarded to the top entries .

Nominations for Parade Marshal are being accepted through Nov. 16. Nominees should have contributed time and resources to the community above and beyond their jobs. Please send your nomination to the Chamber office: headlandalchamber@gmail.com or P.O. Box 236, Headland, AL 36345.

New Board members fill vacant positions

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors welcomes three new Board Members who fill positions that were vacated earlier this year. They are Amy Balkcom (Flowers Hospital/Health First) Linda Robinson (Tax & Accounting Services) and Nerieda Bundy (Law Office). The current Board officers and directors are President Erin Stuckey, Vice President Will Barnes, Treasurer Jody Singleton, Secretary Judy Holland, Chairman Emeritus Bill Snell, Pete Crews, Gail DeFee, Steve Duebelt, Chere Johnson, Zelda Oates, Teresa Peterson, Heather Shippey and Luke Stevens. Board members serve three-year terms.

Scarecrow Selfie prize awarded

Congrats to our Scarecrow Contest winners!! The Scarecrow Selfie prize was won by Mary Kate (& mom Karen) Cook. Davis Floral won first place for their scarecrow, Chasing Dreams Boutique was second, and the Senior Center placed third! Thank you to everyone who helped make our downtown area even more fun this Harvest season!