

CHAMBER NEWS

December 7, 2016

Christmas Parade is this Saturday

Bundle up for the Headland Christmas Parade this Saturday, Dec. 10. The parade begins at 10:00am at Douglas Park and will wind through downtown.

Sherrill Singleton has been named Parade Marshal for this year's parade. The parade theme is "Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree."

Santa will visit with children on the porch of the library immediately following the parade.

Holiday Open House awards Grand Prize

Sarah Phillips won the Grand Door Prize during the Holiday Open House & Tree-Lighting event last week. Valued at more than $300, the prize included gifts and gift certificates from 13 downtown businesses and the Chamber.

Ribbon-cutting for new member American Party Inflatables

A Ribbon-Cutting was held on Tuesday, Nov. 29 for American Party Inflatables. Owned by Zachary and Kristen Parrish of Headland, the party rental business specializes in birthday parties, school functions, church gatherings and other special events. American Party Inflatables was also a participating business during the Holiday Open House & Tree-Lighting event later that evening and offered free activities during the evening. For more information, call 714-5060 or email americanpartyinflatables@gmail.com.

Holiday Bake Sale
At Azalea Court
Assisted Living
Wednesday, Dec. 7th
10am-3pm

All proceeds go to the Holiday Activity Fund for the Residents of Azalea Court

