

HEADLAND AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

FYI

For Your Information...

HARVEST DAY FESTIVAL, OCT 11

Don't miss Headland's biggest day of the year is this weekend! The 43rd Annual Harvest Day Festival will be Saturday, Oct. 11, 9am-3pm.

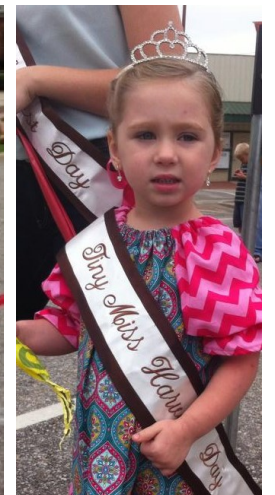

Vendor spaces are filled and overflowing. You'll notice a few organizational changes this year in an effort to make this family event even more fun for everyone. Arts and crafts vendors, children's activities, games, food vendors and non-profits will fill the entire downtown area. The Antique and Collector Car Show will be in full swing on Cleveland St. across from the Old Ice House. Entertainment on stage will feature local and regional groups throughout the day.

RIBBON CUTTINGS

WRMZ 98.1 Ram Radio (top photo) and Walmart Neighborhood Market celebrated their grand openings in September. The Walmart Neighborhood Market is the first to open in the state of Alabama. It is located at the corner of US 431 and County Road 99. WRMZ is a low frequency educational station. It's studio is located at 105 Cleveland St.

HEADLAND'S HARVEST 5K RUN

Scenes from the Harvest 5K Run on Saturday, Sept. 27, shown from left. Little Miss Harvest Day Reece Bradford presented Kyle Robertson the Overall Male award. Overall winners for the day were Rosie Oates, Female Sr. Grand Master; Nancy Hein, Female Grand Master; Kristina Bennett, Female Master; CJ Parrish, Overall Female; Robertson; Dale Thomas, Male Master; Randy Jordan, Male Grand Master; and Jerry Armstrong, Male Sr. Grand Master. Lydia Alexander was the first to cross the finish line in the One-Mile Fun Run. Tiny Miss Harvest Day Kinley Hughes, along with all the Harvest Day queens, congratulated the runners as they finished the race.